COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

SPORTS PREPARATIONS

The Temporary Speaker (Hon. William Mutai): We have a Communication from the Chair. Honourable Members I take this opportunity to welcome you after a very long leave. I have an important Communication concerning Sports; as you are aware we have started our sporting season and I want to take this opportunity to congratulate all the disciplines that have started doing practice towards our competition that is due to come in August. Therefore, Honourable Members I want to communicate to you to continue registering in the various disciplines. Make sure that you attend the practices and on top of that it is very important to become more committed so that we can produce strong competitive teams that represent our County Assembly. Honourable Members take note of that, next order.
