PRAYER

The Deputy Speaker (Hon. Samuel Tonui): Good afternoon Honorable Members. Clerk read the next order.

REQUEST FOR STATEMENT

DELAYED SALARIES FOR STAFF AT IGWAMITI DISPENSARY

The Deputy Speaker (Hon. Samuel Tonui): There is a request of a Statement from Honorable Daniel Kirietha from the Chairperson of the Committee on Health Services concerning delayed payment of Staff at Igwamiti Dispensary in Waseges.

Hon. Daniel Kirietha: Thank you Mr. Temporary Speaker for the chance, I have some two workers in Igwamiti Dispensary in Waseges Ward in Subukia Sub County. I intent to request for a Statement from the Department of Health Services regarding one Jackson Kimutai Koros of ID 8070049 and one Janet Kwamboka Charles of ID 13047502, both have been working in Igwamiti Dispensary for quite some time. It is very unfortunate that they have not been paid since January last year.

I have taken this bold step to appeal to this honorable House so that it can intervene through the Department of Health Services if they are aware of the aforementioned matter. In addition, what the County Government of Nakuru through the Department of Health is doing to make sure the salaries in question are paid and measures put in place by the Hospital Boards or the government to avert such future delays. I do make the request, thank you.

The Deputy Speaker (Hon. Samuel Tonui): Thank you the Chairperson for requesting that Statement and now I commit the request to the Committee on Health Services headed by Hon. Njuguna Mwaura from Elburgon. I direct that the report should be tabled in two weeks' time. Is the Chairperson in?
