Hon. (Ms.) Boniface: It is the arrangement of the minutes because it has a lot of confusion.

Mr. Speaker (Hon. Khatri): Hon. Khamisi Musa Mwidani according to Hon. Faith she has no problem with the amendment of Standing order of 185 but she is saying the arrangement of the papers were not done in correct way so we can let the Secretariat do the proper arrangement. Yes?

Leader of Majority (Hon. Mwidani): Yes and Mr. Speaker we have to tell the House that actually; you know it is the matter that should be done today and actually because of the direction we have, we had to table it today so Mr. Speaker I would request the Member..., I know sometimes there are some typing errors or arrangement errors so with that one I can say sorry for that but actually we should also know how to say this, to save time, because as you know now we are going to adjourn the Assembly. If we will not pass this interim document then it's we to appear in delay. So Mr. Speaker what I had it was what she has mentioned but now I have the correct one which has been arranged by my fellow Member, learned friend.

(Laughter/Applause)

So Mr. Speaker, allow me to start afresh.

(Leader of Majority (Hon. Mwidani) repeated reading the report amid confusion arising from sequencing of the report)
